On 14 March 2016, National Treasury issued a tender for the supply and delivery of mobile communication services to national and provincial government departments in South Africa. The tender was awarded to the Group after an open and transparent process. The Competition Commission has initiated an investigation against the Group and is alleging:

- Abuse of dominance under section 8(d)(i) of the Competition Act of 2009 which prohibits a dominant firm from requiring or inducing a supplier or customer not to deal with a competitor, unless technological efficiencies or other competitive gains outweighing the anti-competitive effects can be proven to exist; and
- Abuse of dominance through an exclusionary conduct impeding or preventing a firm's entry or expansion within a market, unless technological gains or other pro-competitive gains outweighing the anti-competitive effect can be shown to be in existence.

The Group is committed to full co-operation with the Competition Commission in its investigations.
